

When I travel I find the XM traffic and weather very helpfull. When you are in strange market you have no idea on what station to find this information, so you are scaning the dial and not putting 100% of your atention into driving. With XM you can preset these programs before you start driving. This type of service MUST be allowed to remain. The NAB is out of touch with the what is going in the tech world.

Thanks